

Indiana Stamp Company Fact Sheet

Our Company: Established in 1947, Indiana Stamp Company is a world leader in the identification and marking industry, exporting to over 60 countries. Indiana Stamp employs 48 people and operates out of a remodeled 33,000 square foot manufacturing and sales facility at 1319 Production Road and also a 17,000 square foot remodeled manufacturing facility located at 1310 Progress Road, both in the Interstate Business Park in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Indiana Stamp Company, Inc., also known as ISC Companies is comprised of three different divisions:

INDIANA STAMP COMPANY

Our Indiana Stamp division manufactures marking products used to imprint everything from food packages to pallets. Products include hand stamps, pre-inked and plastic self-inking stamps for the office, as well as metal self-inking stamps for heavy commercial and industrial use.

We make printing plates of many varieties, including lumber dies, solid rubber type, Velcro®-back dies, adhesive-back dies, and plain-back dies. These are used in automatic printing machines.

INDIANA SIGNWORKS

The Indiana Signworks division of Indiana Stamp manufactures engraved interior signs, exterior signs, architectural signs, directories, desk plates, wall signs, name badges, and control panels. We specialize in corporate awards and recognition products and laser-engrave graphics on black granite, marble and glass. Indiana Signworks also sells bronze and aluminum plaques including Imaged Bronze™ plaques that capture photographic detail in 3-dimensional relief for donor recognition, etc.

UNITED RIBtype COMPANY

This division manufactures RIBtype® interchangeable ribbed-rubber and synthetic type for marking dates on food packaging and for other uses when the information changes frequently. We sell this product line for use in printing machines throughout the world. Customers include household names like Kellogg's and Frito Lay.

Philosophy: Large or small, customers are the reason for our existence, and customer service is the job of all who work at Indiana Stamp.

Thank you for your interest in Indiana Stamp Company and its products.
